This gorgeous mountain home has a remote feel while being minutes from downtown Asheville. Tucked away in a quaint Haw Creek neighborhood is this private modern residence that boasts a true mountain feel. Upon entry, notice the gleaming hardwood floors, high ceilings, and an open floor plan that provides bright natural light from all angles. This home's cozy yet contemporary elements will allow you to design each space to align with your own personal taste. Inside the gourmet kitchen, you have spectacular cabinets, granite, and light galore. From the kitchen, move into the sun room that looks to the west and relish the light that shines throughout the whole main floor. Enjoy a lower level with bedroom, full bath, laundry area and large flex, office, or living space. This home also provides storage and parking with the lower-level garage. Enjoy the indoor/outdoor living that draws people to the Blue Ridge Mountains. This home is waiting to be your escape.
